CHRISTMAS STARTS WHEN...

There's always a twinkle of Christmas in our Craft Bakery. Whether it's our clever development chefs dreaming up new festive creations or our bakers stirring up, steaming and maturing Christmas puddings, we are never far away from doing a little something to ensure a deliciously Bettys Christmas.

Of course, some things must wait until the last minute, like freshly baking our buttery mince pies or hand-piping the bows on our festive Fondant Fancies. But rest assured, our Craft Bakery team will be mixing, layering, drizzling and decorating to perfection – so all you need to do is grab a cuppa and take a moment to choose your favourites.

*From our family to yours,
we wish you a very Bettys Christmas.*

All our puddings are vegetarian friendly

“This year I’m excited about our new Sticky Toffee Pudding – a sponge that is light but also rich and decadent, a mix of butter, dates and golden syrup. And it’s drenched in a creamy toffee sauce, which melts into the sponge when you reheat the pudding at home. Heaven!”

– Julie Ward, Betty's Product & Innovation Pâtissier

CHRISTMAS STARTS WHEN... ...THE BETTYS CHRISTMAS WINDOWS ARE REVEALED

Danni Greig joined our Craft Bakery when it opened in 1999 and has been with us ever since. As one of the artists in our cake decorating team, she is responsible for crafting all sorts of wonders from sugar for our stunning window displays.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO BE A CAKE DECORATOR AT BETTYS?

Creativity, consistency, problem solving...and a very steady hand. There's a lot in the eye too – a perfectionist's eye for detail, an eye for matching a colour swatch with icing. Knowing when all the little details are just right. My mum was a professional cake decorator for 40 years – it's in the blood!

WHAT DO YOU LOOK FORWARD TO ABOUT CHRISTMAS?

I am always VERY excited to start the festive window centrepieces – this will be my 20th year making them, and even though I know it'll take hundreds and hundreds of hours, I love finding out what I'll be working on. In a modern world where things like 3D printing exist, I'm so proud to create our window centrepieces with traditional sugarcraft and icing – a mix of sweetness and magic.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE WINDOW DISPLAY?

Our Centenary Year window display in 2019 was a lot of fun – if a lot of work! We created replicas of all of our Café Tea Rooms and then arranged them to make a whole street of Bettys. I loved doing the tiny details like the brickwork and the hanging planters in Ilkley, and – of course – a little Betty's van making its deliveries.

WHAT ARE YOUR FAVOURITE PRODUCTS?

Working in the bakery gives you behind-the-scenes privileges, and one of my favourite things is when there's custard left over from making the cakes and pastries for the fancy counter – I am addicted! But come Christmas time, I'm all about the brownie bites...I can eat a lot of those.

SAVE THE DATE

Join us in Harrogate on Friday 8th November for the unveiling of this year's Christmas window.

Keep an eye on our social media for more information and sneak peeks.

"We are one of the few businesses that still decorates with royal icing; due to the time and expertise required, it has become a bit of a lost craft.

It's one of the things that makes me very proud to work at Betty's – doing things properly, with sugar and a bit of magic."

6 Christmases at Bettys

Traditional skills, timeless pleasure

There's over 100 years of craft in a Bettys Christmas, with the skills that have been passed down through generations of bakers, chocolatiers and cake decorators mixed into every rich, fruity pudding and meticulously hand-iced Christmas cake.

But our Craft Bakery is also filled with pride, warmth and fun. An atmosphere infused with the heavenly scent of baking and chocolate, a place where jolliness and generosity are poured into mince pies and handmade chocolate truffles.

From the very beginning, our ethos has simply been to produce the best we can, fresh every day, with the finest ingredients we can find. Delicious treats to help you savour every moment, because we know how precious Christmas can be.

"I love any product with a face, because when you pipe on the features they really come to life. I like to go see how merry our Merry Men are looking when they're being made."

– Ellie Hanson, Chocolate Team Leader

Have a Little Fun

Although we take Christmas very, very seriously...we do like to have a bit of fun. Our chocolatey treats make the most delectable stocking fillers and secret Santa gifts.

“Whether it’s a box of truffles or chocolate for a cake, Betty’s uses the best-of-the-best Grand Cru Swiss chocolate. Only 3% of the world’s cocoa harvest is good enough for Betty’s!”

Lucas Peier, Felchlin Switzerland, world-renowned family-owned Swiss chocolate producer and supplier of Betty’s chocolate.

Our Adventures in Swiss Chocolate

Nestled within our Craft Bakery is the Betty’s Chocolate Room and our team of chocolatiers. There are four fountains of exquisite Swiss chocolate which flows into every chocolate product that we create. From our wickedly decadent Cru Sauvage Truffles and Salted Caramels to fruity, chewy Florentines and bands of Merry Men – always Swiss chocolate, always made by us.

For our Swiss founder, Frederick Belmont, was a renowned chocolate specialist, famed for bringing continental-style chocolate-making (and boozy truffles) to Yorkshire. And it’s simply how he’d want things to be done.

CHRISTMAS STARTS WHEN...

...FAMILY FESTIVE TRADITIONS BEGIN

For some customers that means a Christmas Eve trip to Bettys.

“Our first Christmas delivery arrives and the shop is suddenly filled with the scent of Christmas puddings! Then comes the window display – that’s when you know things are getting serious. And it’s always a special moment to see the first mulled wine of the year make its way to someone’s table, even after ten Christmases.”

Working on Christmas Eve is as enjoyable for us as it is for the customers who visit; the atmosphere is amazing and we love seeing the same faces return every year. It’s special to be part of people’s Christmas traditions, whether they are going for the full festive Afternoon Tea or just a quick pitstop for our amazing hot chocolate. It makes me really proud of the team – everyone is cheerful, excited and supportive, working together to ensure our guests have the most fabulous time.”

Tips from our Customer Support Team for a smooth delivery...

Louise

Order early to avoid disappointment – you get the full choice of products and delivery slots, as we do get booked up quickly. Placing your order early doesn’t mean your order will be any less fresh – our ovens bake every day to ensure the best quality!

12 Christmases at Bettys

Karen

Although products like our Christmas Cakes and Classic Puddings will always last until Christmas Day, others like our mince pies are best eaten shortly after delivery. Use the Bettys website to understand shelf life of items and help you choose the best delivery date – or take delivery of your order early and freeze.

5 Christmases at Bettys

Caroline

When sending gifts overseas, remember to allow additional time for delivery before Christmas as parcels can take longer to clear Customs when it’s so busy.
